TENTH BIENNIAL REPORT.

Herewith the Board of Directors of the Kansas State Historical Society presents the tenth biennial report, showing the work of the Society during the two years ending November 1, 1896.

During the period covered by the report there have been added to the library 2,464 volumes of books, 6,314 unbound volumes and pamphlets, 2,814 volumes of newspapers and periodicals, 7,024 single newspapers containing matter of historical interest, 119 maps, atlases, and charts, 597 manuscripts, 313 pictures and other works of art, 9 pieces of scrip, currency, and coin, 476 relics and miscellaneous contributions. Thus to the library proper, of books, pamphlets, newspapers, and periodicals, during the two years have been added 11,592 volumes. Of these, 11,166 have been procured by gift and exchange, and 426 by purchase.

Totals.....	18,338	18,223	54,931	91,492

The total of the library at the present time is as follows: 18,338 bound volumes of books, 54,931 unbound volumes and pamphlets, 18,223 bound newspaper files and volumes of periodicals; in all, 91,492 volumes.

Of the accessions of books and pamphlets during the two years, 240 volumes have been purchased and 8,538 have come by gift and exchange. Of newspapers and magazines, 186 volumes have been purchased and 2,628 have been donated to the Society. The lists and tables in the report show the sources from which all the accessions of the different classes have come.

KANSAS NEWSPAPERS.

To the bound volumes of newspapers and magazines published in Kansas, 1,499 volumes have been added during the two years. These have all been donated to the Society by the publishers. The library now contains on its shelves 12,188 bound volumes of Kansas newspapers and magazines. This is a larger collection of local historical materials of this class than is contained in any other library in the world. Of newspapers and magazines published in other states, the library contains 6,035 volumes.

SOURCES OF GROWTH.

For the purpose of augmenting the library, the law governing our Society grants 60 bound copies of all publications of the state, with one exception, for use in exchanges with other societies and institutions. Exchanges and donations have been the principal means of accession to the library. The scant appropriations provided from year to year have been a minor source of growth. Through exchanges a very successful effort has constantly been made to bring into our library the reports and published volumes of every description of the very numerous societies throughout the country engaged in promoting sociological, philanthropic and scientific pursuits, and in inquiry, experiment and investigation of every description.

The fact of the rapid growth of our library by gifts is no doubt in no small measure attributable to the prominence which Kansas has had from the beginning of its history in affairs of worldwide interest. The events of the territorial period of our history were the prelude to the civil war. From that time to the present Kansas has been eventful in social progress and in political agitation. The fact that such a state is making up a historical, scientific and political library has attracted the attention of interested individual donors and of the libraries and institutions, not only of this country, but of the world. Our Society makes exchanges in all of the states and in many foreign countries. Thus the library is being made up with little cost to the state.

From lists and statements appended to this report it will be seen that during the two years the growth of the library and collections has been equal to that of former periods, and, in important respects, greater. Our lists of acknowledgments show that the accessions by gift and exchange during the past two years have come from more than 2,000 different sources. More than half of the persons, societies and institutions giving the publications are outside of Kansas.

Our accessions of books, pamphlets, newspapers and magazines record in detail events in all affairs of human activity; they record the thoughts, the sentiments, the social movements and the efforts at human progress in all respects. Thus a very full library of reference is being made upon all subjects of thought and inquiry. With adequate appropriations by the legislature to supply deficiencies in the classes of publications thus brought in by gift and exchange, an unequalled library of reference would grow up.

In respect to local materials, our library is not excelled by any other in any country. Authors, writers and teachers connected with our institutions of learning and with our newspaper press, and those otherwise engaged in scientific, historical, economical, political and literary investigations, are constantly consulting its collections. Thus are the treasures from this storehouse of information being brought out for the instruction of the people.

SPECIAL GIFTS OF BOOKS.

The library of Yale University has given in exchange for Kansas state publications 218 rare volumes, mostly historical. This gift was also accompanied by a large number of pamphlets. Hon. Samuel A. Green, of the Massachusetts Historical Society, has contributed over 200 books and pamphlets, chiefly relating to New England history and philanthropy. Unique gifts have been made by Prof. Z. T. Riley, of Topeka, and Mr. C. R. Orcutt, of California, consisting of 400 volumes of out-of-date school-books, covering all departments, and ranging through the past 20 years. The American Swedenborg Publishing Company, New York city, and the German Evangelical Lutheran Synod, Concord, N. H., have both made valuable gifts of their church publications. The Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland, Ohio, has given over 100 volumes of Ohio state publications to complete our partial sets.

MANUSCRIPTS.

The manuscript accessions have been numerous and valuable. Prominent among them may be mentioned the personal recollections of Orville C. Brown, of Adams, N. Y., relating to Kansas territorial affairs, principally in the neighborhood of Osawatomie. Col. John Doniphan, of St. Joseph, Mo., has contributed a biography of Gen. David R. Atchison, and sketches of early Fort Leavenworth, and the pre-territorial history of the Kickapoo cannon. Gen. Charles A. Foster, of Quincy, Mass., has given 47 manuscript letters written by citizens of Kansas territory prominent in public affairs, and of dates from 1854 to 1861. Mr. Foster was himself a very active free-state man, and was elected attorney-general under the Leavenworth constitution. Col. R. J. Hinton, of Bay Ridge, N. Y., has given a large mass of autograph letters and manuscript papers, materials collected for use by him in the preparation of his volume on "John Brown and His Men," besides numerous other manuscripts relating to Kansas territorial affairs. Thaddeus Hyatt, of New York city, has given 291 letters and other papers relating to the settlement of Kansas, to Kansas political matters, and the drought of 1860-'61; Samuel F. Tappan, of Washington, D. C., manuscripts relative to the free-state guard to protect President Lincoln in the White House, at the opening of the rebellion, also papers relating to the Lecompton constitution; Capt. W. H. Ward, of Topeka, letters containing the autographs of 41 different governors and secretaries of the different states and territories in office in 1879.

PICTURES.

Of pictures added to the collection, the most noteworthy is the oil-painted and elegantly framed portrait of Senator Preston B. Plumb, painted by William A. Griffith, of Emporia, and purchased for the Historical Society by special appropriation of $500 by the legislature of 1895. The friends of the late librarian, Hamilton J. Dennis, have caused his portrait, painted by George M. Stone, of Topeka, appropriately framed, to be placed in our collection. Among other portraits worthy of mention are that of Maj. James B. Abbott, presented by his wife; that of Col. R. J. Hinton, by himself; the portraits of the early missionaries, Rev. Isaac McCoy and his wife, Christina, presented by their grandson, John C. McCoy, of Kansas City; that of Hon. George A. Crawford, presented by S. D. Macdonald; that of Mrs. Margaret R. Wickens, past department and past national president W. R. C., by the Parsons Woman's Relief Corps of Kansas; that of Rev. John G. Pratt and wife, assistants of Rev. Isaac McCoy, presented by Mr. Pratt, still surviving, a citizen of Wyandotte county. The portrait of the author of "America," the Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, together with an autograph copy of the song, copied by him for the late Mr. T. E. Bowman, of Topeka, has been presented by Mrs. Bowman. Mrs. George Johnson, of White Rock, Kas., has given the Society a fine photographic view of the assemblage on the 29th of September last in Republic county to commemorate the first flag raising in Kansas. Messrs. Hall & O'Donald have given the Society a set of engravings of Kansas governors. M. P. Creese, Topeka, presented the Society with cabinet photos of the legislative house and senate of 1895.

RELICS AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Charles A. Foster, of Quincy, Mass., has given seven invitations and tickets to free-state entertainments in Paola, Osawatimie, and Lawrence, of dates ranging through 1857 to 1859; Thaddeus Hyatt, of New York city, a large scrap-book of 147 closely interleaved pages, containing matter from Kansas and eastern papers relating to the drought of 1860-'61 and efforts for its relief; from Mrs. George Johnson, of White Rock, and associates, many relics incident to the village life of the plains Indians, picked up on the site of the Pawnee village, Republic county, referred to at length elsewhere; from Burt O. Ogburn, Phoenix, Ariz., a collection of fragments of aboriginal pottery, arrow points, etc., from that vicinity; from George J. Remsburg, Atchison, a fine lot of relics gathered from Indian village sites, workshops, etc., in Atchison county; from H. A. Smith, of Morganville, an easel made from relics of the tornado of April 25, 1896, in Cloud and Clay counties; from J. F. Todd, of Topeka, Indian rubbing stones, plowed up in Gove county, Kansas; from Mrs. Soion O. Thacher, of Lawrence, a historic office desk used by her husband, formerly the property of Col. A. G. Boone, of Westport, of Col. A. S. Johnson, and later of various Kansas territorial officers.

PUBLICATIONS ISSUED.

During the past year the fifth volume of the collections of the Society was published, and 2,500 copies issued. Owing to lack of funds for postage and expressage, this volume has been but partially distributed among our citizens and among contributors. The volume, besides containing brief minutes of the proceedings of the Society's meetings, and the addresses delivered at annual meetings since and including 1891, completes the series of executive minutes and documentary papers of the territorial governors. Our third volume contained the executive minutes and papers of the administrations of Governors Reeder and Shannon; the fourth volume those of Governor Geary; the fifth volume, now published, contains those of Governors Walker, Denver, and Medary, bringing up the documentary history to the time of the organization of the state, in 1861. These documentary records comprise the authentic, unquestioned materials of the history of that remarkable period of Kansas annals—remarkable not only for its local interest, but for the bearing of its events upon the history of the country.

PAWNEE INDIAN VILLAGE.

At the annual meeting of our Society in January last, a committee was appointed to investigate the subject of the situation of the village of the Pawnee Indian republic, which was visited and described by Lieut. Zebulon M. Pike in September and October, 1806. The subject had been brought to the attention of our Society by the officers of the Pawnee Republic Historical Society, an organization composed of citizens of Republic and Jewell counties residing in the neighborhood of an ancient Indian village site, believed by them to be that of the Pawnee village mentioned. In July last two members of the committee, Prof. E. B. Cowgill and the Secretary (the other member, Mr. Noble L. Prentis, being unable to participate), made as full an investigation of the subject as was practicable. The conclusion arrived at was that with scarcely a possibility of mistake the site pointed out to us by officers and members of the local society is the site of the village visited and described by Lieutenant Pike. In the first place, the description and map in Pike's report of his expedition point almost directly to the place where this village site is now found. Much additional light on the significance of Pike's journal and map has been given in the recently published annotated edition of Pike's journal, by Prof. Elliott Coues, of the Smithsonian Institution. The judgment of Professor Coues coincides with that of our committee as to the identity of the site. The investigations made by the local society mentioned support this opinion. The region of the Republican valley, above and below, has for many years been settled up and brought into cultivation. Intelligent and trustworthy officers and members of the local society have made diligent inquires of all of the inhabitants calculated to throw light upon the subject. The only other locality believed by any to have been the site of an Indian village was visited, and was found to have been only a temporary Indian camp, having no remains characteristic of those always found on the abandoned sites of the older and permanent Indian villages. At the place now identified are clearly exhibited evidences that there was at a time as remote as that of Pike's visit an Indian village of the character described by him. In respect to this the evidences are quite conclusive. The markings conform fully to those well-known artificial features which have identified sites of other ancient villages of the Indians of the plains, notably that of the Kaw village near Manhattan, described in volumes 1 and 2 of the collections of this Society. Here upon the site of this Pawnee village are clearly marked remains of surrounding walls, and, within the bounds of the same, circular ridges showing the situations of numerous permanent earth lodges. There is the debris left from the destruction of these habitations. These evidences are distinct and unmistakable. From such considerations your committee arrived at the conclusion that the spot visited is the identical site of the village in question; there can be but a bare possibility that it can be otherwise..

On the site of this village, on the 29th day of September, 1806, Pike, by consent of the chiefs of the village, took down a Spanish flag found by him there floating, and put in its place the flag of our country; no doubt the first flag of the kind erected upon our Kansas plains.

The place where are now found the remnants of that ancient village embraces portions of sections 2 and 3, township 2, range 5 west, in White Rock township, Republic county, on the west side of the valley, across the river from Republic City. On the 29th of September last, under the auspices of the Pawnee Republic Historical Society, a multitude of people gathered on that site to celebrate the ninetieth anniversary of Lieutenant Pike's flag raising by erecting a flagstaff and displaying upon it another flag, a fine example of the flag of our country, provided for the occasion by Mrs. George Johnson, through whose intelligently directed zeal and influence is due the movement for the identification and commemoration of this village site.

STATE LIBRARY TRANSFER.

At the last annual meeting of the Society, January 21, 1896, under a resolution then adopted, a committee of the Board was appointed on the subject of a proposed transfer of the miscellaneous department in the state law library to the library of the State Historical Society. The State Editorial Association, at its annual meeting, at Leavenworth, February 17, 1896, also appointed a committee on the subject, to cooperate with the Historical Society committee. The joint committee submitted to the Board their report, as follows:

"To the Board of Directors of the State Historical Society:

"The undersigned beg leave to report as follows: At the last annual meeting of the State Historical Society a committee was appointed to confer with the board of directors of the state law library for the object of procuring, if possible, the consent of that board to the transfer, through necessary legislation, of the miscellaneous department of the state library to the library of the State Historical Society, leaving the state library to the usual province of a library of reference for the use of the courts and attorneys and to the care of the endowed medical library which has been placed with it. Subsequently the State Editorial Association, all the members of which are members of the State Historical Society, appointed a committee to cooperate with the Historical Society in seeking such a conference. The two committees join in presenting this report to the Board of Directors of the State Historical Society.

"The board of directors of the state law library is composed of the justices of the supreme court; and, at the suggestion of Chief Justice Martin, the two committees joined in presenting to the justices a written statement of the reasons why the proposed transfer is sought. Such paper was accordingly prepared and communicated to the library directors, signed by all the members of the two committees. We herewith give a summary of the contents of the paper so communicated, as follows:

"1. Our State Historical Society is composed of intelligent citizens residing in all parts of the state, whose personal gifts of the most useful materials of popular reference contained in any state library constitute a nucleus for a great popular library of reference for the people of Kansas. In making these gifts the members of the Society have done so in the belief that the state would contribute the means for building up such a library. Instead, the means which otherwise would be given are being in part diverted to the miscellaneous department of the state library.

"2. The legislature, through the act of 1879, which recognizes the State Historical Society as the trustee of the state, and defines its duties and relations to the state, charges the Society with the duty of making up a library, and provides that rooms in the state-house shall be given for such library. For nearly 20 years the legislature has made small appropriations for the purchase of books to augment the library. The law gives the Society also a limited number of the publications of the state for use in exchanges for the same object. The character of the library required to be made up is to be such 'as will facilitate the investigation of historical, scientific, social and literary subjects.' At the same time small and irregularly made appropriations have been made to the miscellaneous department of the state law library, a department similar in character to the library which the law requires the State Historical Society to make up. It is now sought to concentrate this class of library work in the library of the State Historical Society.

"3. In no other state where a historical society exists constituted as is ours, does the state maintain a miscellaneous library in connection with the state law library.

"4. No miscellaneous department of any state law library has ever answered the proper needs for the information of the people of a state in their local history and for the investigation of subjects of current inquiry in history, politics, science, sociology, etc.

"5. It does not seem consistent with the intelligence of the people of Kansas that they should permit the continuance of the contention, the bad economy, the distraction in use attendant upon the effort to build up and maintain in the state capitol two libraries substantially of the same character.

"6. At the present time, when new and permanent apartments in the state capitol building are about to be prepared for the accommodation of two libraries, it seems to be most imperatively demanded that the library policy of the state should be permanently settled.

"7. It is not sought to dwarf nor diminish the dignity and usefulness of the state law library, but to leave it with its ample collection of law books, public documents and books of reference of every character desired by the courts and attorneys and by public officials in the discharge of their duties; nor is it sought to disturb the relations of that library to the endowed medical library which has been given to its care. Law libraries and medical libraries are so specifically distinct from libraries of reference in history, science, the arts, sociology, and literature, that the line of separation is broadly and distinctly marked.

"8. It is not intended to place the books withdrawn where they will be less accessible to users than if they were to remain in the state law library, but to place them with like classes of books in other convenient rooms in the state-house, where they will be free for the use of all.

"9. A question of so great importance should be decided, in view of all the public interests involved, without consideration of any personal, private or temporary interest whatever. It is not a question of personal interest or desire, but a question affecting the economical and educational interests of the people of the state for all time to come.

"The application thus presented to the directors of the state library was signed by all the members of the two committees, as follows: E. B. Cowgill, editor of the Kansas Farmer, Topeka; Hon. James S. Emery, Lawrence; George W. Martin, editor of the Kansas City Gazette; A. J. Felt, editor of the Champion, Atchison; Sol. Miller, editor of the Chief, Troy; J. E. Junkin, editor of the Bulletin and Gazette, Sterling; W. L. Brown, editor of the Journal, Kingman; D. R. Anthony, editor of the Times, Leavenworth.

"Under date of October 10 the directors of the law library made reply, declining to join in a conference, on the ground that, having been charged by the legislature with the trust of caring for the state library, it would be unseemly for them to join in a conference having for its object a change or diversion of the trust.

"The directors of the state library having thus declined to cooperate in the proposed measure, it remains for the Historical Society to take action in the premises without such cooperation. In the judgment of the members of the joint committee, it is imperatively demanded that the Society should seek at the hands of the coming legislature the legislation so urgently demanded by the library interests of the state. We therefore recommend that our Board of Directors instruct the legislative committee of the Society to secure, if possible, the needed legislation.

"All of which is respectfully submitted.

"(Signed) E. B. Cowgill, James S. Emery, George W. Martin, Sol. Miller, J. E. Junkin, D. R. Anthony, A. J. Felt."

It will be observed that the members of this joint committee are representative citizens of Kansas—among the oldest and among the youngest; some of them of the very first pioneers in the founding of Kansas, as they were in founding this Historical Society. Failing to secure the cooperation of the directors of the state library, the committee recommends that the Society endeavor to secure the necessary legislation to concentrate and unite the miscellaneous and historical library work of the state without such cooperation. In this view the Board of Directors fully coincides, and the legislative committee of the Society has been so instructed.

If there were wanted other proof of the necessity of such legislative action than has been brought forward by our joint committee, it is to be found in the remarkable exhibit made in the biennial report of the state librarian, recently published. This report of the librarian shows that in a manner unwarranted that institution has, at the expense of the state, added during the last few months hundreds of volumes to its miscellaneous department, many of them of a historical character, and some of which were already in the library of the Historical Society. These books have been brought in through an exchange of volumes of the supreme court report for books of this character. This has been done under the alleged sanction of a law construed to authorize such exchange. For a full understanding of this subject the history of the law is given. During the later years of the state law library the legislature has repeatedly withheld appropriations for the purchase of books for the miscellaneous department, thus frowning upon the library duplication which had so long been going on through the fact of two libraries of the same kind in the state-house. Early in the session of the legislature of 1895 a bill was introduced in the house aimed to secure book accessions to the library without specific appropriations. The following is a copy of the bill:

"An act providing for the exchange of supreme court reports by the state librarian.

"Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Kansas:

"Section 1. That the state librarian, by and with the advice of and consent of the judges of the supreme court, is hereby authorized and directed to exchange the reports of the supreme court of this state, beginning with volume 40, and including all subsequent volumes of such reports now issued or hereafter to be issued, that may be remaining in the state library after distribution has been made of such reports as provided by law, for other books for the use of the state library, to be deposited and kept in such library.

"Sec. 2. In making such exchanges, each volume of such supreme court reports shall be exchanged in quantities of not less than 25 copies at a time, and shall be rated at not less than two dollars ($2) per copy. This act shall not be construed as repealing any law now in force providing for the distribution of the supreme court reports of this state, but shall be considered as supplementary to such laws.

"Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication in the official state paper."

This bill was so obviously intended to permit an improper use of the supreme court reports that members of the legislature gave it no encouragement. But during the session an act was passed creating appellate courts for the state, one of which holds its sittings at Wichita. Late in the session the house bill here quoted was brought into the senate, slightly changed as we shall see, was introduced as an original bill, and was put through both houses, with the explanation that it was a bill to provide a library for the use of the appellate court at Wichita. The language of the law as thus passed, with the exception of a verbal change or two, is the exact language of the dormant house bill, except that the last part of section 1 is changed so as to read: "for the use of a library for the appellate court at Wichita, to be deposited and kept in such library," and the price at which the volumes of the reports are rated is raised to $2.25. On the face of the law, and according to the explanation of the senator who hastily secured its passage, its object was to provide books for a library for the appellate court at Wichita, the books so procured to be deposited and kept in such library. But under the pretended sanction of this law hundreds of volumes, largely historical and miscellaneous, have been brought into the state law library, at Topeka; none have been procured and deposited in a library at Wichita. This is shown in the report of the state librarian recently published. On page 30, under the head of "List of law and reference books added to the state library from March 7, 1895, to June 30, 1896, under the provisions of the act of March 7, 1895, entitled 'An act providing for the exchange of supreme court reports by the state librarian,'" are given the titles of 493 books, law and miscellaneous, procured at an expense, in supreme court reports, of $1,896.

There is no library for the use of the appellate court at Wichita; hence there was no propriety in procuring books at all under this law—no authority for such action. In making these exchanges and securing these books the Wichita clause of the law has been entirely ignored, and the books thus procured by exchanges of the supreme court reports have been "added to the state library," as if no Wichita library had ever been contemplated.

It does not seem that this mode of securing means to add to the books of the state can be construed to accord with the spirit of the constitutional provision which contemplates the restriction of the expenditure of the money of the state to specific appropriations made by law. It does seem that, failing to secure direct appropriations for the purchase of books, this plan of turning the property of the state into money and using the money to buy books has been resorted to, thus to gain by indirection what the legislature has refused by direct, specific appropriation. Such a subterfuge as that now inaugurated under this library-exchange law is simply an outcome of the absurd practice which has been going on for 20 years past in the feeble fostering of two libraries of the same character in the state-house. There is no precedent for such a practice. No other state carries on such a practice. In no other state where there is a state historical society, doing its work for the state, at the state capitol, is a miscellaneous department kept by the state in its law library.

It is not to be supposed that what we have here explained as the recently inaugurated practice in the state library has been sanctioned by the directors of the library, the justices of the supreme court. Necessarily the details of the business of the state law library must be left to others than the directors themselves, as is well known to be the case in the management of the work of the State Historical Society. Our Board of Directors early adopted a rule that no voucher for money to be drawn from the state treasury or from the funds of the Society should be presented until first approved by the Society's executive committee, indorsed on such voucher; and the governor of the state has for many years past been a member of our executive committee. It was originally the intention of the Historical Society that the governor and some others of the executive officers of the state should be made by law members of our Board of Directors; and our Board now recommends to the Society that, in the contemplated legislation during the coming session, such officers of the state be added to and made members of our Board.

But three states have historical societies such as ours, building up for the state a library of history and general reference. The people of the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kansas are fortunate in having the aid of such societies. These three societies have excelled all other institutions in the country, under whatever name, in the work of making up libraries of local history and of reference for the use of the people. Wisconsin now has in the library of its historical society 175,000 volumes; Kansas, 91,492; Minnesota, 50,000. The secret of their success lies in the fact that they are voluntary, non-partizan organizations of the people of the state, the members themselves making the most useful gifts, thus enabling the society to gather in the fullest materials of the history of every portion of the state. These societies are organized for the specific purpose, in the first place, of making full collections of materials of the local history of the state; and next, of making a library of general reference on all subjects. State law libraries never have done such work with any thoroughness. This arises because of the fact that the appropriate and legitimate work of a state law library is that of providing for the needs of the supreme court and other courts of a state; the making up of a law library. This is the absorbing object of a state law library; little or no attention is therefore given by state law libraries towards meeting the needs of the masses of the people in respect to libraries of local history and general reference. It was because the state law library of Kansas had not done such work that the State Historical Society was organized. Twenty years of the eventful history of Kansas had passed, and none of its materials had been brought into the state law library. There was nothing found in it to meet the demands of popular inquiry.

The Kansas State Historical Society was founded by that intelligent and thoughtful class of citizens, the early editors and publishers of Kansas. The initiatory action was taken by resolution adopted by the State Editorial Association, in April, 1875, 21 years ago. By the beginning of the year 1876 the work of making up the library had been begun, first through the gift on the part of the editors of the regular issues of their newspapers. Such gifts have from that time to the present continued to be made by all the editors and publishers of the state, until now the library of the Society contains, as shown, bound volumes of Kansas newspapers to the number of 12,188; representing in all details the history of local events in every county and every considerable community in the state. This is much the largest collection of the materials of local history of this class contained in any library in any state or country.

Since the founding of the Society, almost its entire membership has been composed of the editors and publishers of Kansas. In undertaking to establish and to secure the permanent maintenance of a historical society for the state, its founders had reason to believe that every class of the more intelligent citizens would give it aid and encouragement, and that the state would build up around the gifts made a general library of reference, in like manner as has been done by other states which maintain historical societies. Such aid and encouragement has been given, by thoughtful and appreciative citizens of all classes. Authors and writers, without distinction, have freely given their books, pamphlets and other publications. Educators connected with all institutions of learning have, through membership of the Society, through the use of its library, and through the unreserved commendation of its work on all occasions, manifested their interest.

And the state early gave encouragement that needful aid would be given for the maintenance of the Society and the care of its library. The legislature of 1877 made an appropriation, in the language of the law, "to aid the Society in collecting books, maps, charts and papers of every kind and other materials illustrative of the history of Kansas in particular and the West in general." The act of 1879 adopted the Society as the "trustee of the state," and with the consent of the Society assumed its library and collections as the property of the state, to be kept in "convenient rooms to be provided by the secretary of state." The law provided "that, to enable the Society to augment its collections by effecting exchanges with other societies and institutions, 60 bound copies each of the several publications of the state and its societies and institutions, except the reports of the supreme court, shall be and the same are hereby donated to said Society as they shall be issued." The law made it the duty of the Society to procure, "by gift and exchange, scientific and historical reports, of the legislatures of other states, of railroads, reports of geological and other scientific surveys, and such other books, maps, charts and materials as will facilitate the investigation of historical, scientific, social, educational and literary subjects," and "to purchase books to supply deficiencies in the various departments of its collections." (Session Laws of 1877,

Under the sanction of such laws, and charged by the law with such duties, the Society has diligently sought to procure by gift and exchange books, pamphlets, magazines and other publications upon the subjects mentioned. In compliance with the requirements that the Society should purchase books to supply deficiencies in the various departments of its collections, such purchases have been made so far as the appropriation of money by the state has permitted, thus to carry out the obvious intention of the law that the Kansas State Historical Society should build up for the people of the state a well-rounded library of reference upon all subjects of popular current thought and investigation.

But, unfortunately, the state has not made adequate appropriations to supply the deficiencies. Instead, small appropriations have been made for the purchase of books of the classes named, and such appropriations have been divided between the State Historical Society and the miscellaneous department of the state law library. Thus no such proper library of reference is being made up by the state for the use of the people at large. Thus the money of the state is being frittered away in a feeble movement towards building up two libraries of the same kind in the state capitol. In the 15 years since 1881, there has been expended in the state library, for books of the same classes as those required by law to be brought into the State Historical Society, the sum of $8,514.92. During the same period there has been expended for such books for the library of the State Historical Society the sum of $9,051.18. In this way, during the 15 years, the total sum of $17,566.10 has been divided as shown, in the absurd practice of duplicating libraries. At every session of the legislature the two interests come in conflict before the committees of the legislature charged with the duty of preparing appropriation bills. The committees are distracted by unseemly strife and by conflicting statements as to the province of the two libraries, with the result of meagre appropriations given to both; and for the three sessions of the legislature preceding the last, such appropriation was wholly withheld from the state library.

In the hope that a full representation of this subject might lead to such legislative action as will put the library interests of the state upon a proper basis of economy and administration, we have thus at length presented the obvious reasons for the consolidation sought by the Society.

ROOMS FOR THE SOCIETY.

The legislature of 1895 passed the following concurrent resolution (No. 22):

"Relating to rooms for the State Historical Society.

"Be it resolved by the house of representatives of the state of Kansas, the senate concurring therein:

"That in the plans for the completion of the capitol building and its occupancy when completed, the rooms of the two floors of the east wing below the senate chamber, or so much of the space thereof as may be necessary, be assigned and prepared for the use of the State Historical Society for its library and museum; and that it shall be the duty of the state executive council to instruct the board of public works and state architect to make such changes in the rooms mentioned as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this resolution."

A committee of the Board of Directors has been instructed to confer and advise with the members of the incoming executive council concerning the completion and furnishing of the rooms for the Society in the east wing, as contemplated by the resolution.

MEETINGS, 1895-'96.

MEETING OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—OCTOBER 2, 1895.

At a called meeting of the Executive Committee of the Society, held in the west room, October 2, 1895, the following members were present:

Gov. E. N. Morrill, Major William Sims, Hon. F. P. Baker, Col. C. K. Holliday. Dr. S. McLallin was absent on account of sickness. Colonel Holliday presided.

The Secretary stated that the object of the call of the committee was to fill the vacancy in the office of President of the Society, caused by the death of Hon. Solon O. Thacher, which occurred on the 11th of August, 1895.

Mr. Baker moved the appointment of Gov. E. N. Morrill to fill the vacancy, and stated the reason why he thought the appointment should be made. Major Sims seconded the motion with remarks of the same tenor. A vote being taken resulted in yeas, 3: Messrs. Baker, Sims, and Holliday. Nays 1, Governor Morrill. The chairman declared Governor Morrill duly elected.

The meeting then adjourned.

TWENTIETH ANNUAL MEETING—BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The twentieth annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Historical Society met in the state capitol at 2 p. m., January 21, 1896, Gov. E. N. Morrill, President, in the chair. The following members were present: E. N. Morrill, Fred. Wellhouse, D. R. Anthony, A. B. Whiting, F. G. Adams, A. E. True, J. S. Emery, S. A. Kingman, V. J. Lane, James B. Abbott, E. B. Cowgill, J. Ware Butterfield, Harrison Kelley, J. E. Junkin, John Guthrie, E. J. Dallas, F. D. Coburn, and L. R. Elliott.

The Secretary read the annual report of the Board of Directors, which on motion was adopted for presentation to the annual meeting of the Society.

On motion of Mr. Cowgill, a committee was appointed to confer with the trustees of the state library, for the object, if possible, of adjusting the conflict between the state law library and the Historical Society, as follows: E. B. Cowgill, Topeka; Geo. W. Martin, Kansas City; A. J. Felt, Atchison; James S. Emery, Lawrence; F. D. Coburn, Kansas City. Mr. Coburn having declined to act on the committee, Hon. Sol. Miller, of Troy, was appointed in his place.

On motion of Judge Guthrie, the following committee of three was appointed by the President to prepare a suitable memorial of the life and character of Judge Solon O. Thacher for publication in the collections of this Society: Col. D. R. Anthony, Brinton W. Woodward, and N. L. Prentis.

The committee on nominations made their report, which, on motion, was approved for presentation to the annual meeting of the Society and of the Board of Directors.

Governor Morrill then presented the report of the Committee on Finances, which was accepted.

Governor Morrill being called away, Major Abbott took the chair.

J. C. Price, of Republic, then presented the matter of the village site of the Pawnee Republic, and exhibited some relics picked up from the locality. The following resolutions, offered by the Secretary, were then adopted:

Resolved, That the Kansas State Historical Society recognizes as of great importance the investigations made by the Pawnee Republic Historical Society, of Republic and Jewell counties, in its efforts to establish the exact location of the village of the Pawnee republic, which was visited and described by Capt. Zebulon M. Pike in the year 1806, and thus to fix the point where American occupancy under the Louisiana territory purchase first encountered Spanish occupancy, and the flag of the United States was made to supplant the flag of Spain.

Resolved, That the information already gathered by that society, supported as it is by the testimony of the distinguished investigator and antiquarian, Prof. Elliott Cones, leaves little if any question that that village site had its location near the Republican river, on portions of sections 2 and 3, township 2, range 5 west, in White Rock township, Republic county.

Resolved, That a committee of this Board be appointed to co-operate with the Pawnee Republic Historical Society in definitely determining that location, and in recommending such action as may be deemed advisable towards suitably marking the place by monument or otherwise.

The President appointed the following committee, in accordance with the foregoing resolution: F. G. Adams, E. B. Cowgill, and N. L. Prentiss.

Judge Kingman proffered his resignation as a member of the Board of Directors. On motion of Judge Guthrie, the resignation was accepted, and Judge Kingman was nominated as an honorary member.

On motion of Secretary Adams, Miss Lucy D. Kingman was nominated to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of her father.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

Judge Kingman also read a letter of regret which had been written by General Ewing to the Secretary of the Society in response to an invitation given him to attend the present annual meeting. On motion, Judges Samuel A. Kingman, A. H. Horton and John Guthrie were appointed to prepare a paper on the life and services of General Ewing.
